Plagiarism and collusion

Plagiarism occurs when a student passes off as the student's own work, or copies without acknowledgment as to its authorship, the work of any other person.

Collusion occurs when a student obtains the agreement of another person for a fraudulent purpose with the intent of obtaining an advantage in submitting an assignment or other work

Declaration

I certify that the attached work is entirely my own (or where submitted to meet the requirements of an approved group assignment is the work of the group), except where work quoted or paraphrased is acknowledged in the text. I also certify that it has not been submitted for assessment in any other unit or course.

I agree that Deakin University may make and retain copies of this work for the purposes of marking and review, and may submit this work to an external plagiarism-detection service who may retain a copy for future plagiarism detection but will not release it or use it for any other purpose.

DATE: _____

An assignment will not be accepted for assessment if the declaration appearing above has not been duly completed by the author.
